

Your Chance to Be Heard on Insurance Rates in Washington

Have you experienced an insurance rate increase? The Coalition for Fair Insurance (CFI) has updated its website and encourages Washington policyholders, like you, to speak out by:

1. Sharing stories of how you have been impacted by rate increases.
2. Writing to state legislators to speak out against insurance rate increases due to the new emergency regulations.

Using the site is easy and the steps are detailed below.*

Share Your Story*

1. Scan the QR code at the bottom of this page or enter the URL <https://www.coalitionforfairinsurance.org/> into your web browser.
2. Once on the site, click “Share Your Story” in the upper right-hand corner of the navigation.
3. Enter your Full Name, Zip Code and Email address in the fields on the right.
4. Then, use the open box to share how you have been impacted by the insurance rate increases due to the emergency regulations. Please be as specific as possible and share the cost of the increase, how it is a hardship, et.
5. Click “Submit”.

Write to Your Legislators

1. Scan the QR code at the bottom of this page or enter the URL <https://www.coalitionforfairinsurance.org/> into your web browser.
2. Once on the site, click “Take Action” in the upper right-hand corner of the navigation, or click the red “Take Action” box on the homepage.
3. Read the background information on the issue provided on the left-hand side of the page.
4. Enter your Full Name, Zip Code and Email on the right side. From your zip code the site will automatically match you to your state legislators.
5. Read the draft letter to legislators and customize it to share how the emergency regulations have impacted you.
6. Click “Send Email.”

Sharing stories and emailing concerns will help alert lawmakers to the impact of the Insurance Commissioner’s emergency regulations on policyholders across Washington.
